

Stanley Chan

Director of the Board

Chairperson of the Management Committee

Member of the Market Advisory Group

Chief Executive Officer

Mr Stanley Chan is the Chief Executive Officer of CMU OmniClear Limited. CMU OmniClear Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Exchange Fund which carries out the operation and business development activities the CMU, a debt securities clearing and settlement system on behalf of the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA). Prior to joining CMU OmniClear, Mr Chan was the Division Head of Financial Market Infrastructure Service Division of the HKMA and the Chief Executive Officer of Hong Kong FMI Services Limited. He joined the HKMA in 1995 and served in various areas, including reserves management, financial infrastructure development, bank licensing, and clearing and settlement systems oversight. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) and graduated from the University of Adelaide (Australia) with a Master of Business Administration.